

Meet “Buttercup” The Moooovelous New Michigan State Fair Milking Cow!

Novi, MI: A collaboration between the Oakland County Fair, Oakland Co. Farm Bureau and Michigan State Fair, L.L.C. will bring a delightful new addition to the popular “Endless Cup Of Chocolate Milk” feature, sponsored by Guernsey Farms Dairy, at the Fifth Third Bank Michigan State Fair, Thursday September 1 through Monday September 5 at the Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi. Buttercup the cow is an educational tool allowing children and adults alike to learn how to milk a cow, then patrons may pay $1.00 for a wristband that allows endless chocolate milk refills all day long! She also talks and provides fun cow facts to the audience! Current Fair schedule and advance tickets on sale now at www.MichiganStateFairLLC.com

Make sure to look for Buttercup’s special paint job that includes a “State of Michigan” spot on both of her sides!

